AUDIO GUIDE

EURO organizers have arranged an exciting trip for the fans who take interest in football and its history, for those eager to know the way the game of millions is connected to the art, literature, and theatre three multimedia journeys to be offered to the listeners to enjoy together with the famous actors, musicians, writers, and fans of Saint Petersburg. That is an audio guide as well as a photo report on the football life of Saint Petersburg (Available only in Russian).

Покрас Лампас – художник-каллиграф, известный сотрудничеством с известными брендами и городскими пространствами, автор резонансных проектов и работ, выставки которых проходили по всему миру. Он – представитель нового, современного искусства Санкт-Петербурга. Чтобы подчеркнуть неразрывную связь арт-инициатив и футбола, художник специально для ЕВРО 2020 создал концепцию, основанную на слове «единство». Таким образом он воплотит идею об объединяющей силе футбола: команды-участницы ощущают единство со своими болельщиками, а города-организаторы создают пространство единого ЕВРО 2020.

Свои каллиграфические картины Покрас Лампас будет создавать в поп-ап галерее, которая откроется 11 июня в Центре искусства и музыки (Невский проспект, 20). Создание работ в виде перевода слова «единство» на языки всех стран-участниц ЕВРО будет динамичным: художник намерен общаться с посетителями и журналистами.

CELEBRITIES

We Expect to Come to Saint Petersburg

Team of Russia: Artem Dzyuba

A striker of Zenit — the leader, captain, and top scorer of the present team. By the EURO start, Artem narrowed big-time Alexander Kerzhakov's goal scoring record for the national team (29 for Dzyuba against 30 for Kerzhakov).

Team of Finland: Teemu Pukki

Pukki had always been considered a talented striker, and after his transfer to Norwich City in 2018, he seemed to have found his second wind. Teemu's qualification goal scores were most helpful to the Finns at the qualification and finally brought them to the EURO for the first time.

Team of Belgium: Kevin de Bruyne

Kevin confirmed his high football skills by scoring four and assisting for seven goals in six qualification games. In English Premier League and Champions League, de Bruyne has been one of the consistent leaders of Manchester City. He is arriving in Saint Petersburg having a status of an important tournament star.

CELEBRITIES

We Expect to Come to Saint Petersburg

Team of Slovakia: Marek Hamšík

The top scorer and the heart of the national team who is the record-holder by matches played for Slovakia national. Energetic and tireless, a 33-year player is yet the main driving force of the team. It is hard to even think of the Slovak team without him.

Team of Sweden: Emil Forsberg

The missing of Zlatan Ibrahimovic has certainly made the Swedish team a little less attractive. But there are plenty of strong players in the team: after all, the team has done without Ibra in recent years. One of the Swedish leaders is Emil Forsberg. The half-back is approaching the Euros at the perfect age and after a great season at RB Leipzig. He is no stranger to being the leader at important moments.

Team of Poland: Robert Lewandowski

At the moment, Lewandowski is one of the best strikers in the world football, who has won all the awards both individual and as a club member. It has been proved by the results he shows participating in the national team games. (Robert is the best leading scorer in the history of the national team of Poland and holds his record for the number of games he has played.)
